Mayor Joe Frank to proclaim June Healthy Relationships Month in Newport News

NEWPORT NEWS, VA – On Saturday, June 10, 2006, during the First Annual Dad's Walk for Healthy Families, Mayor Joe Frank will proclaim June to be Healthy Relationships Month in Newport News. Other speakers include Newport News Commonwealth's Attorney Howard E. Gwynn and Newport News Sheriff Gabe Morgan.

To celebrate and promote healthy relationships and raise awareness in the community, especially among males, Transitions Family Violence Services and the Newport News Domestic Violence Task Force (NNDVT) are holding the First Annual Dad's Walk for Healthy Families on June 10th, from 8 AM – 12 PM, at Newport News Park. The Dad's Walk encourages men, women, children, and community members to recognize the vital role that men play in promoting healthy relationships within their families and their communities. The family-friendly two mile walk and awareness event will feature giveaways, speeches, presentations, and information from area agencies working to promote healthy relationships and end violence on the Peninsula.

The First Annual Dad's Walk for Healthy Families is brought to you with the support of these community partners: Hampton – Newport News Community Services Board, Pat Sullivan of Abbitt Realty, Cuts Fitness for Men, Starbucks, Tidewater Arts Outreach, Delegate Glenn Oder, One in Three, Peninsula Fine Arts Center, American Association of University Women (AAUW) Newport News Branch, Cinema Café, Coliseum Mall, Double Exposure, Langley Federal Credit Union, Old Point National Bank, Peninsula Worklink, St. Mark's Episcopal Church Hampton, The National Episcopal Health Ministries, Virginia Air and Space Center, Virginia Living Museum, Barnes & Noble Newport News, Peninsula Metropolitan YMCA, and Regal Entertainment Group.

Cost is $3 for individuals and families of four or less, and $5 for families of five or more. The first 250 registrants get free t-shirts, so register now! You can register online at <http://www.transitionsfvs.org>. For more information, contact Jenny Scherer, (757) 722-2261, jscherer@transitionsfvs.org
